

Photography Contest 2024

Information & Rules

Description/Overview:

Photography offers a mode of creative communication as well as a lens into the communities we inhabit and visit. Photographs can capture a range of moments and expressions, people, places, and events. As such, the Office of Academic Affairs and Center for Excellence in Teaching & Learning would like to invite all University of Detroit Mercy community members to submit digital photographs for consideration as part of an ongoing annual photography contest. The contest is open to faculty, staff, students, and administrators to celebrate and display our unique world views. You can submit photographs in the categories listed below (one entry per category). First-place winners in each category will receive cash prizes and an enlarged, mounted copy of their winning photographs.

All photographs should be submitted using the following guidelines

Each entry must include:

- Contestant Name, email, phone number
- A concise photograph title
(Title on digital entry file must match the entry form. "untitled" or "file number" is not acceptable)
- Date taken and category entered
- Description/Artist Statement of photograph
- A copyright notice (if applicable)
